

ry. Feb 1929

Miss Annie A. Hendley was released from suffering at her home on King street on Friday of last week, aged nearly seventy-three years. She was a native of this town and one of three children born to William Wallace Hendley and his wife, Ann Maria Whitcomb. A sister Carrie died in early life, and a brother Edgar passed away in 1914. All her life had been passed in this her native town, and here were her interests. She cared for her sister during a long illness and devoted herself with unfailing kindness to the care of her mother, who was ill for some years. She was a member of the Unitarian church and a faithful attendant at the services as long as health permitted. She had also been a member of the Woman's club for many years.

Funeral services, attended by relatives and friends, were held at the home on Monday afternoon at two o'clock and fitting words of her life and character were said by Rev. William C. Brown, a long-time friend, and the present pastor, Rev. J. H. Wilson. Interment was made in the family lot in Westlawn amid a profusion of beautiful flowers.

The nearest surviving relatives are several cousins.

Among those from out of town to attend the services were Mrs. Edgar Harrod, Lexington; Mrs. Guy Littlefield, Mrs. Ida McGregor and daughter, West Acton; Mrs. Anna Wyman and Mr. and Mrs. George Wyman, Winton, and Mrs. Grace Roulland, Wren.

die Feb. 15, 1929

age 72 y 7 m 24 d

arterio sclerosis

Annie Augusta Hendley

b. June 22, 1856