

Stacy Ann Hartwell, age 49, of Lowell, formerly of Littleton passed away on Friday, February 19, 2021.

Born in Concord on February 5, 1972, a daughter of Peter H. Hartwell of Littleton and the late Diane M. Swanson.

Stacy was raised in Littleton and attended Littleton High School, she was a proud and loving mother who cared for her daughters and treasured the time with her granddaughter. Stacy loved to pass time reading a good book or magazine and listening to all types of music, singing and dancing.

Along with her father she is survived by her step-mother, Susan Melito of Dunstable, loving daughters, Taylor Joiner and her partner Nathaniel Maker, Keira Joiner and her spouse Marielly Almeida, all of Lowell, her cherished granddaughter, Nevaeh, her brothers, Peter J. Hartwell of Nashua, Christopher M. Hartwell of New Bedford, Nathan D. Hartwell of Fitchburg and several nieces, nephews, and cousins. She will always be in our hearts forever watching over us.

Family and friends will gather to honor and remember Stacy for a period of visitation on Saturday, March 6, 2021 from 11:00AM until 12:00PM in the Badger Funeral Home, 347 King Street, Littleton. A Graveside service will be held for Stacy following the visitation at 12:30PM at Westlawn Cemetery, 7 New Estate Road, Littleton.
