

Lowell Sun - Lowell, Mass.

FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 2007

Nathan H. Hartwell Jr....longtime Littleton resident; 84

WESTFORD — Nathan H Hartwell Jr., 84, a former longtime Littleton resident, died Thursday, April 12, at the Westford Nursing Home in Westford.

He was born in Norwell, Feb. 14, 1923, son of the late Nathan and Ethel (Burns) Hartwell. He attended the Littleton school system.

Mr. Hartwell worked as a custodian for most of his life, including at United Elastics in Littleton from 1943 to 1958. He also held that position at Joan Fabrics.

He was a member of the Radio League, and the gun clubs of Dracut and Chelmsford.

Mr. Hartwell was a member of the Unitarian Universalist Church in Littleton.

He is survived by two brothers, John Hartwell of Littleton, and Haywood "Pete" Hartwell of Concord.

He was also the brother of the late Anna Draybek.

A graveside service was held yesterday in Littleton.