

Catherine Irving

Catherine (Martin) Irving, 95, of Littleton died on January 13, 2013 at Nashoba Valley Medical Center in Ayer surrounded by her family. She was born in Spring Hill Mines, Nova Scotia, on March 30, 1917 daughter of the late John and Mary (Richards) Martin and was the wife of the late Thomas J. Irving who died in 1976 and mother of the late Judith Irving who died in 1993. She spent her early life in Nova Scotia and came to the United States in 1927. She made her home in Malden and was a graduate of Malden High School. She worked for National Radio in Malden for a short time. Catherine was married in 1944 and since her husband was in the Army, they moved several places, including Somerville for 5 years and Littleton since 1958. She was a communicant of St. Annes Church in Littleton, a member and past president of the James A Logan VFW Post #6800 Auxiliary and a member of the Littleton Womens Club. Her survivors include her nieces and nephews Dorothy Martin, Donald Martin, Jack Glancy, Maureen Gearin, Janine Smith and Robert Burns. She was predeceased by her brother and sister Charles Martin and H. Elizabeth Burns. Visiting hours will be on Friday, January 18, from 8:30 -9:45 am at Badger Funeral Home 347 King Street, Littleton, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Annes Church at 10 am. Burial at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton. A special thank you to the many loving caregivers and friends over the years. Please see www. badgerfuneral.com.

Published in The Littleton Independent from January 15 to January 22, 2013