Andrew 'Mel' Morris

of Littleton, active at St. Anne's, WWII vet; 91

LITTLETON — Andrew "Mel" Morris, 91, of Littleton, died peacefully on Sunday, February 7th, 2010.

Andrew was born in Wallingford, CT, on July 13, 1918, son of Chester and Mary (Alpegiani) Morris, one of seven children.

He is survived by Gloria his wife of 64 years. He is also survived by his daughter, Barbara Woodroof and husband, George of Gunter, Texas; his daughter, Adrianna Morris, a daughter-in-law, Melisenda McDonald of Westford; and a sister, Lena Bacci of Wallingford, CT.

Mel served in the Army infantry during World War II.

He worked for many years in the Tannery in Ayer, MA, and then finished his career at Gen Rad (Concord, MA).

He and Gloria were very active members of St. Anne's parish, last year they were recognized for their stewardship of the church.

Mel loved sports, particularly Notre Dame football, the Patriots, Red Sox, and local teams. He was a gifted athlete having pitched as a lefty in the minor leagues; he also was an avid golfer. He enjoyed gardening, and feeding the birds.

Mel was a friend to all.
