

Lowell Sun - Lowell, Mass.

Friday, October 6, 2006

June McElman...former longtime resident of Littleton, Digital retiree; 82

GARDNER — June (Griffin) McElman, 82, a former resident of Littleton, died Tuesday, Oct. 3, at Wachusett Manor Nursing Home in Gardner. She was the wife of James H. McElman, who died in 1980.

She was born in Chicago, March 26, 1924. She was a graduate of the Boston school system.

She made her home in Littleton for more than 50 years and Hubbardston for the past 22 years.

Mrs. McElman was an assembler for Digital for 33 years. As a teenager, she worked at Bergson Ice Cream.

She enjoyed reading, crocheting and taking care of her family.

She is survived by two sons, James D. McElman and Michael McElman, both residing in California; her former daughter-in-law, Kathy and her husband, Robert Taylor of Winchendon; two grandchildren, Lisa Meunier and Christopher McElman; and two great-grandchildren, Corey and Coral Meunier.

She was also the mother of the late Dennis McElman, and grandmother of the late Dennis McElman, Jr.

McELMAN — of Littleton and Hubbardston, June (Griffin) McElman, Oct. 3. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Oct. 26 at 10 a.m. at St. Anne's Church, 75 King St., Littleton. Burial will be at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton. Badger Funeral Home, Littleton is in charge of arrangements.