

TUESDAY, JUNE 29, 1999

Brigida McDonough ...of Littleton, worked at Fort Devens; 84

LITTLETON — Brigida (Dorigo) McDonough, 84, a former employee at Fort Devens, died at her Littleton residence on Sunday, June 27. She was the wife of John J. McDonough.

She was born in Galleriano, Italy, on Sept. 27, 1914, she spent her early life in Italy and was married after World War II. She traveled extensively as her husband was in the military and made her home in Littleton since 1964.

Mrs. McDonough worked at Fort Devens for 15 years in the Housing Authority and was a member of St. Anne's Church in Littleton.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a son, John McDonough of Merrimack, N.H.; two daughters, Margarita McDonough of Ayer, and Joanne McDonough-Pratt of Kansas City, Mo.; two sisters, Mafalda and Leandro Dorigo, both of Gallarini, Italy; and two grandchildren.

She was the grandmother of the late Sean Leachman.

McDONOUGH — Of Littleton, Brigida (Dorigo) McDonough, June 27. Funeral Services will be held at Badger Funeral Home, Rt 2A/110 Littleton, on Wednesday at 1 p.m. Visiting Hours will be 11-1 prior to the services. Burial at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton.

THE BOSTON GLOBE • TUESDAY, JUNE 29, 1999

McDONOUGH — Of Littleton, Brigida (Dorigo) McDonough, June 27. Wife of John J. McDonough of Littleton. Mother of John McDonough of Merrimack, N.H., Margarita McDonough of Ayer, and Joanne McDonough-Pratt of Kansas City, Mo. Sister of Mafalda and Leandro Dorigo both of Gallarini, Italy. Also survived by 2 grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at Badger Funeral Home, Rt. 2A/110, LITTLETON, on Wednesday at 1 p.m. Visiting hours will be 11-1 prior to the services. Burial at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton.