

Sean Earle McCarthy of Sunapee, New Hampshire and Acton, Massachusetts died Thursday, January 08, 2015. He was 48. Sean leaves his parents, Bruce Meade McCarthy and Mary Regina (Arroll) McCarthy, as well as his brother, Bruce Meade McCarthy, Jr. and sister, Regina Patricia McCarthy-Farrell, along with a large, extended family of aunts, uncles and cousins. Sean was raised in Acton, Massachusetts and spent a good deal of time in Sunapee, New Hampshire before becoming a permanent resident in 2012. Sean was a graduate of Wilbraham Monson Academy in Wilbraham, Massachusetts and New England Tech in Providence, Rhode Island. He had worked as a maintenance engineer for the Marriott Hotel in Providence, Rhode Island and the Sheraton Hotel in Burlington, Vermont before suffering a disabling nerve disorder that limited his ability to work. Despite his disability, Sean was working part-time at the Intertown Record, a weekly newspaper serving the greater Sunapee region at the time of his passing. Visiting hours will be at the Chadwick Funeral Home in New London, New Hampshire Thursday, January 15, 2015, 11am to 1pm with eulogy beginning at noon. In lieu of flowers, the requests that donations be made in Seans name to the Epilepsy Foundation, 8301 Professional Place, Suite 200, Landover, Maryland 20785.

Published in The Boxborough Beacon from Jan. 13 to Jan. 20, 2015 -