

Helen K. Martin ... ran Littleton restaurant; 93

LITTLETON — Helen K. (Simon) Martin, 93, of Littleton, died Friday, Jan. 15, at Apple Valley Continuing Care Center in Ayer.

She was born in Boston on May 21, 1905, daughter of the late Daniel and Emilie (Englemann) Simon, and was the widow of Winthrop R. Martin.

She spent her childhood in Roslindale; and after her marriage in 1927, moved to Newton Highlands where they raised their children. At that time, she and her husband owned and operated an appliance and music store.

In 1956, the Martins moved to Littleton where they operated the Mary Shepaard Restaurant.

Mrs. Martin was active in the Littleton Grange No. 20, and was a past master in 1966 and 1967. She enjoyed gardening, teaching dancing to seniors and her grandchildren.

Mrs. Martin is survived by two sons, Richard D. Martin of Maynard, and Roger W. Martin of Scottsdale, Ariz.; and Corinne M. Leving of Littleton, seven grandchildren, and 11 great grandchildren.
