

SEPT. 23, 1905

lecture showed the vast and varied work of the society in this state, in its endeavor to build up schools for bible study in the sparsely settled regions and among the various foreign population of the cities.

Miss Cameron, who has cared for Mrs. Warren Fletcher in her serious illness, left town Monday.

Ralph W. Conant has entered Cornell university. He left home last Monday.

Miss S. F. White went to Worcester last Saturday to visit her niece and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Slocumb.

Mrs. C. S. Robbins is making an extended visit with a sister in Melrose.

Last Friday the body of Mrs. Martha A. Marshall of Medford was brought to town for interment.

The C. E. topic will be "The home mission work of our denomination," conducted by Rev. R. N. Fulton.