

Wallace Macdonald

Wallace Macdonald
of Fitchburg; formerly of Littleton; 84

LITTLETON -- Wallace Macdonald, 84, of Fitchburg, formerly of Littleton died Saturday, January 28, 2012, at Hillcrest Nursing Home.

Mr. Macdonald was the husband of the late Diane M. Macdonald with whom he celebrated fifty years of marriage.

Mr. Macdonald was born in Gloucester on November 17, 1927, a son of the late Wallace and Ivy Alice (Schofield) Macdonald. Prior to living in Fitchburg, he resided in Littleton for forty four years.

Mr. Macdonald is survived by one son and daughter- in-law, Douglas P. and Kathleen Macdonald of Nashua, NH; Two daughters and one son-in-law, Donna A. and Kelly Campbell of Lunenburg, Sandra J. Macdonald of Fitchburg and nieces and nephews.

He was the brother of the late Peter Macdonald and Christina "Alma" Conger.

Mr. Macdonald was previously employed at Hanscom Air Force Base in Bedford as the Physical Science Administrator of the AFGL.

He was a graduate of Northeastern University in Boston.

He enjoyed Dixie Land Jazz Music, the Boston Red Sox, flea markets, antique car shows and was an avid reader of daily newspapers.

Mr. Macdonald served his country in the US Army Corp of Engineers during the Korean Conflict, attaining the rank of Sergeant.

MACDONALD -- Funeral Services are to be held Thursday, February 2, at 1pm in the T.J. Anderson & Son Funeral Home, 25 Fitchburg Rd., (Rt. 2A), Ayer. Burial with military honors will be in Westlawn Cemetery in Littleton.

There are no calling hours.

Please see www.AndersonFuneral.com for additional information.