

d: Feb. 13, 1985

Elsie Webb Pickard

21 Feb 85

Elsie Webb Pickard, 72, of 91 Bruce Street died at her residence Feb. 13 after a lengthy illness. She was born in Lowell, June 3, 1913 daughter of the late Francis and Mary (Williamson) Webb and was the wife of the late Ashley H. Pickard. Elsie had made her home in Littleton since 1928 and had been a first and second grade school teacher in Littleton from 1935 to 1977. She was a graduate of the Perry Normal School and a member of the Mass. Retired Teacher's Association and the National Retired Teacher's Association.

Mrs. Pickard was active in the King's Daughters of which she had been on the Board of Trustees of the Horn Home in Lowell. She had been a member of the Senior Citizens Club, Littleton Historical Society, 4—H Club, and a member of the Day Alliance. She was a member of the First Church Unitarian of Littleton and was a past treasurer of the Sunday school.

Her survivors include a son and daughter-in-law James and Eleanor Pickard of Littleton; a brother Charles R. Webb of Lowell; and four grandchildren, Kristen, Jaime, William, and Ashley, all of Littleton.

A funeral service was held at the Badger Funeral Home, Route 2A in Littleton, on Saturday, Feb. 16, at 1 p.m. Burial was at Westlawn Cemetery in Littleton. Rev. Robert Hadley and William Beldan officiated. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in her memory to the Littleton Scholarship Trust Fund, c/o Jack Holmer, P.O. Box 1001, Littleton Mass 01460.