

Frank Parker

CHELMSFORD — Frank Law Parker, 70, a widely known resident of this community, and making his home at 30 Sunset Av., in the Westlands section, died last evening at the Lowell General hospital. He was born in Ayer, the son of, Ruben C. and Hattie L. (Law) Parker and had been a resident of Chelmsford for many years. Prior to his retirement in 1962, he had been a supervisor at the Raytheon plant in Wayland. His survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Archibald (Mildred) McAulay of Billerica, two sons, Walter N. Parker of Westboro and Lester R. Parker of Chelmsford, a brother, George A. Parker of Lowell; nine grandchildren, and two great grandchildren. Mr. Parker was a member of Ancient York Lodge A.F. and A.M. and the Square and Compass Club of Raytheon and was an attendant of the Central Congregational church of Chelmsford.