David J. Roy ...of Littleton, youth soccer coach; 53

LITTLETON — David J. Roy, 53, a Littleton resident since 1974 who volunteered his time coaching in the town's youth soccer program, died unexpectedly, Sunday, Nov. 4, at Beth Israel-Deaconess Hospital in Boston. He was the husband of Mary Ann (Wisniewski) Roy, and they had been married since 1972.

He was born in Gardner on April 9, 1948, a son of Edmond and Edith (Smith) Roy of Athol. He grew up in Templeton, and was a 1966 graduate of Narragansett Regional High School. At Wentworth Institute, he received an associate's degree in mechanical engineering in 1968, and earned a bachelor's degree in industrial technology from Northeastern University in 1976.

Mr. Roy was employed as a materials manager at Olympic Systems Inc. in Winchester for the past 15 years. He also worked as a draftsman at Heald Corp. in Worcester, and as a mechanical draftsman at Millipore Corp. in Bedford.

He attended the Trinity Congregational Church in Bolton, and was a member of the Music Ministry. He was active in the Massachusetts Youth Soccer Association, and was a grade-seven referee. He also coached Littleton Youth Soccer.

Besides his wife and parents, survivors include his sons, Gregory and his wife Pauline Roy of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Jeffrey R. Roy of Littleton; and a brother, Richard Roy of Salem, N.H.

He was also the brother of the late Susan Berry.
