

Barbara Rood 8²⁹⁻⁹³

Barbara (Waugh) Rood, 75, of 239 Ayer Road, died at Deaconess-Nashoba Hospital in Ayer on Sunday after a brief illness.

Born April 26, 1918 in Waltham, the daughter of Albert and Mildred Waugh, she was the widow of James M. Rood, who died in 1991.

Mrs. Rood spent her early life in Weston and attended Weston schools. She was married for 55 years and resided in Littleton for the past 26 years.

She was a cafeteria worker at the Shattuck Street School for several years, and most recently had been head cook at the New England Deaconess in Concord.

She is survived by a son, Kenneth Rood of Littleton; two daughters, Audrey Moreau and Beverly Zechello, both of California; a brother, Albert Waugh Jr. of Florida; two sisters, Marjorie Nugent and Doris Small, both of Littleton; six grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and two special friends, Matthew and John Moniz of Ayer.
