

Lowell Sun - Lowell, MASS.

Thursday, September 4, 2008

Harold J. Robinson

of Littleton, decorated Army vet, WWII; 85

LITTLETON — Harold J. Robinson, 85, of Littleton, died at Walden Rehabilitation and Nursing Ceneter in Concord, on September 1.

He was born in Sydney, Nova Scotia on June 5, 1923, son of the late Thomas and Mary (Pendergast) Belliveau, and was the husband of the late Margaret (Johnson) Robinson who died in 2000. He grew up in Lexington between two golf courses where he caddied as a young man and became a great golfer.

Harold moved to Littleton in the 1940's. and served in the U.S. Army where he received a Purple Heart for his service in Normandy.

After the War, Harold he worked as a carpenter for most of his life. He later became an inspector for General Service Administration where he inspected HUD housing projects. He was a Life Member of Littleton VFW, Littleton-Westford Elks, and The Grange. Harold has also served as Grand Marshall of a Memorial Day Parade in Littleton.

His survivors include his daughter, Diane and her husband, Stephen Belliveau of Bolton; and 2 Grandchildren Andrine and Brad Belliveau, both of Bolton. He was also the brother of the late George Robinson, May Sullivan, and Katherine McCormack.

ROBINSON — Private Family Services will be held at St. Anne's Church, Littleton. Burial at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton. His family requests that contributions be made in his memory to Alzheimers Assn., 311 Arsenal Street, Watertown, MA 02472. Badger Funeral Home, Littleton is in charge of arrangements. www.badgerfuneral.com

