

Lowell Sun - Lowell, Mass.
Wednesday, June 13, 2007

Julie Ann Stoddard ...formerly of Groton, Littleton, nurse; 66

Uncasville, Conn. — Julie Ann (Hosmer) Stoddard, 66, a former resident of Littleton and Groton who was a nurse in the area, died Wednesday, June 6, at Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston. She was the wife of John E. Stoddard.

She was born in Ayer on May 9, 1941 daughter of the late Fred and Doris (Cunningham) Hosmer. She grew up in Littleton and graduated from Littleton High School.

She graduated from Mount Wachusett Community College in 1978 with a degree in nursing.

She was a registered nurse and worked at Monrath of Groton, and several nursing homes. Mrs. Stoddard finished her career working for insurance companies as a case manager specializing in workmen's compensation cases.

She made her home in Groton from 1974 until 2002 and then moved to Uncasville to be near her grandchildren.

She developed a passion for Clumber spaniels and brought a puppy to a championship in competitions around the United States.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by three sons, John E. Stoddard Jr. of East Lyme. James P. Stoddard of Middlegrove, N.Y., and Jody C. Stoddard of Cambridge; and five grandchildren.

A graveside service was to be held today at Westlawn Cemetery in Littleton.