

Dollard Bourassa ...Ayer resident; 77

AYER — Dollard "Del" Bourassa, a resident of Ayer for the past 32 years, died yesterday, May 21, the day before his 78th birthday, at Life Care Center of Nashoba Valley in Littleton.

He was born in Lowell, May 22, 1929, son of the late Antonio and Agnes (Mayrand) Bourassa. He was raised and educated in Lowell.

Mr. Bourassa was best known as a driver for more than 45 years at Kleenit Inc., in Ayer. Previously, he worked as a cook at the Monarch Diner in Littleton, and worked for a brief time at Paramount Cleaners in Lowell.

He was a member of St. Mary Church in Ayer. He liked candlepin bowling, playing cribbage, and loved dancing.

He is survived by his former wife, Priscilla (Moore) Lambert of Shirley; his children and their spouses, Laurie and Edwin Beckwith of Union, Maine, Richard and Maria Bourassa of Pepperell, Tony and Elizabeth Bourassa of Windham, N.H., Gary and Kathleen Bourassa of Shirley, Paul Bourassa, Christy and Stuart Sprinkle, all of Nashua, N.H.; 17 grandchildren; one great-grandchild.

He is also survived by a brother, Camille Bourassa of Dracut. He was also the brother of the late Lillian, Carmen, Fernand and Marcel.

BOURASSA — of Ayer, Dollard "Del" Bourassa, May 21. Funeral Services will be held at the Badger Funeral Home, 44 E. Main St., Ayer on Thurs. at 10 a.m., Visiting hours Wed. 4-8 p.m., Burial at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton. For those who wish, contributions may be made in his name to Affinity Hospice, 121 Middlesex Tpk., Suite 102, Burlington, MA 01803.