Neville U. Upson...retired Army major, active in Littleton organizations; 90

LITTLETON — Neville U. Upson, 90, a retired U.S. Army major who was active in Littleton education issues and was the former head of the town's senior citizens organization, died Thursday, Dec. 12, at his home in Littleton. He was the husband of Gladys (Hulbert) Upson, to whom he was married for 61 years.

He was born in Galion, Ohio, on June 30, 1912, a son of Clarence and Mabel (Stevenson) Upson. He graduated from Galion High School in 1931, where he played varsity football.

Mr. Neville served in the Army for 20 years, retiring in 1960. Following his military career, he received a bachelor's degree in economics from Boston University in 1964.

Prior to his retirement in 1978, he worked as a technical editor and writer for the Army Security Agency at the former Fort Devens.

He attended the Littleton Baptist church, and was a member of the Littleton Scholarship Trust committee, past president of the Littleton Parent Teachers Student Association and the Littleton Lyceum. In addition, he was a board member and treasurer of Minuteman Health Care, past president of the Littleton Senior Citizens and a member of Technical Writers of America. His hobbies were playing golf and bridge, sewing and traveling.

Besides his wife, survivors include two daughters, Linda Upson Rasmussen of Los Angeles, Patricia Upson King of Orange, Conn.; and three grandchildren, Paul U. Rasmussen, Carolyn G. Rasmussen and Stuart N. H. King.
