

April 23, 1984

Margaret Whitcomb

Margaret (Mekkelsen) Whitcomb, 70, of 563 Newtown Rd., Littleton died at the Nashoba Community Hospital, Ayer, on April 23.

She was born in Acton June 20, 1913, daughter of Thora (Otterson) Mekkelsen Eager and the late Henry Mekkelson. Mrs. Whitcomb spent her early life in Acton and had made her home in Littleton for over 53 years.

She was the wife of the late Oliver Adams Whitcomb.

She was a member of the First Church Unitarian in Littleton and treasurer of the Women's Alliance. She was a member of the King's Daughters, worked for many years at the Reuben Hoar Library and was involved with the Council on Aging, teaching crafts. She was also a school crossing guard for many years.

Her survivors include her mother, Thora Eager of Littleton; a son, Henry H. Whitcomb of Littleton; a sister, Helen M. Fencer of Littleton; 11 grandchildren, Evelyn Harvill, Henry H. Whitcomb, Jr., Timothy Whitcomb, and Bryan Whitcomb, all of Littleton, Margaret Lapin of California, Linda Hicks of Whitefield, N.H., Becky Whitcomb of Llandaff, N.H., Felicia Whitcomb, Leslie Whitcomb, Olive Whitcomb III and Christopher Whitcomb, all of Texas. She is also survived by six great grandchildren, David & Sara Harvill, Joshua & Katie Lapin, and Stephanie & Stephen Hicks.

A Funeral Service will be held at the Badger Funeral Home, Route 2A, Littleton, Thursday at 1 p.m. Visiting hours are Wednesday from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Funeral directors are William A. Badger & Sons.