

Marlin Young

MILFORD, NH – Marlin T. Young, 88, of Milford, NH passed on December 27, 2011. He was born in Glennwood, Iowa on May 19, 1923, son of the late Marlin T. and Nellie (Noah) Young. He grew up in Glennwood, Iowa, graduated from Glennwood High School. He served in the United States Navy during WWII on the aircraft carrier USS Hancock (CV-19). Marlin's patriotism to his country continued through the years while attending many USS Hancock (CV-19) reunions as one of the few remaining Veterans from the carrier.

Marlin met his wife of 63 years while on leave in Boston, MA. Marlin and Ruth married on May 23, 1948 and settled in Massachusetts. After the war, Marlin worked for Jordan Marsh in Boston for a few years, but went back to his passion of Naval Air and the Air Force. He worked on the original NASA space program as well as Westover A.F.B., Hanscom A.F.B. (where he worked on Air Force One) and retired from General Radio, Concord, MA.

Marlin and Ruth retired to Falmouth, MA to enjoy several homes that they built. During his early years Marlin's family was raised in Littleton, MA. While living in Littleton, MA, Marlin was an active member of the Lions Club and a mem-
