

Edward J. Bryon...1912-1994

Edward J. Bryon, 82 of King Street, Littleton died at the Littleton House Nursing Home in Littleton on Friday, Oct. 7, after a lengthy illness.

He was born in Westford on Jan. 6, 1912 son of the late Olver and Alexina (Richard) Bryon. He spent some of his early life in Westford and attended the Cameron School. He worked at the Abbot Worsted Mill for many years and T.I.C. Corp. in Acton for several years. Mr. Bryon had made his home in Littleton since 1965 and had worked as a custodian at St. Anne's Church in Littleton for over 30 years. He was a member and communicant of St. Anne's Church.

Mr. Bryon is survived by his wife Valentine (Milot) Bryon of Littleton with whom he would have celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary on Monday; two sons J. Raymond Bryon of Simsbury, Conn. and Daniel R. Bryon of Hudson; seven grandchildren, Scott Bryon, Todd Bryon and Kim Lord all of Connecticut, Robin Munroe and Michelle Bryon both of Connecticut, Dona Bryon of Texas and Fredericka Strunk of California and five great-grandchildren.

A funeral was held on Monday with a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Anne's Church, King St., Littleton. Burial was at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton. For those who wish, contributions may be made in his memory to Residents' Council, Littleton House Nursing Home, 191 Foster St., Littleton, Mass. 01460.

10-7-94