

Carole Mae (Beaton) Errico, 78 and a longtime Littleton resident passed away peacefully at her home in the presence of her loved ones. She was the wife of Paul R. Errico.

Carole was born in Springhill, Nova Scotia on September 7, 1942, a daughter to the late Daniel and Marion (Burden) Beaton. She immigrated to the US in 1959 and in 1963 she married Paul, and began a love story that would span 58 years. The family lived in Arlington for many years and settled in Littleton in 1980. For many years Carole worked as a secretary to the president of John Hancock and as the assistant clerk magistrate for Middlesex Superior Court. She was a devoted member of the St. Anne parish community in Littleton and enjoyed nothing more than being with her family. She was a consummate caregiver for her family and will be dearly missed.

In addition to her husband, Carole is survived by her son, Paul D. Errico and his wife Kathleen of Haverhill and her grandchildren; Melissa Hirons and her husband Jesse of Worcester, Kaitlyn Meehan of Haverhill and Camden Errico of Haverhill, and her great-grandchildren; Colin Meehan-Daniels and Kaleb Ellard. Carole is further survived by her sister, Brenda Wesinger and her late husband Lenny of Arlington and her nephew Daniel Wesinger and his wife Sarah of Randolph. Carole is sadly predeceased by her daughter, Susan and granddaughter, Kelsey.

A private graveside service will be held in Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton.
