Donald F. Flagg

Donald F. Flagg, 78, of 12 Nashua St., Ayer, formerly of Florida and Littleton, died April 11 at the Nashoba Community Hospital in Ayer after a brief illness. He was born in Fitchburg January 31, 1910, son of the late Charles and Margaret (Fairbanks) Flagg.

Donald attended the Littleton School System and was a graduate of Lowell Trade School. He was a welder at Lewis-Shepard, a division of Hyster Corp. for over 30 years. He was a member of the United Steel Workers Union and retired to Florida several years ago, and had lived in Ayer for over a year.

Mr. Flagg is survived by his wife, Helen Margaret (Finch) Flagg of Ayer; two sons, Robert

F. Flagg of Los Angeles, California, and William H. Flagg of Payullap, Washington; a daughter, Mrs. Douglas (Vivian) Winchester of Ayer; two brothers, Charles V. Flagg, Jr. of Dewittville, New York, and John W. Flagg of Littleton; and eight grandchildren.

A private graveside service was held on Saturday at Westlawn Cemetery in Littleton.
