

Delia (Zukas) Huntington | Visit Guest Book

Delia (Zukas) Huntington, 90, of Littleton died on Friday, March 18, 2011, at Life Care Center of Nashoba Valley in Littleton. She was born in Cambridge on Jan. 6, 1921 daughter of the late John and Julia (Palubinska) Zukas and was the wife of the late George Kantelis and the late Fred H. Huntington. She spent her early life in Cambridge and attended the Cambridge School System. She had made her home in Roxbury, Acton for 39 years and Littleton for almost 30 years, Delia had worked as coil winder for Northeast Scientific in Acton, a waitress for Howard Johnson, and later as an assembler for Rex Wire and Cable in Acton, and Warren Manufacturing in Littleton, retiring at the age of 73. She loved her grandchildren and making many crafts. Mrs. Huntington is survived by two sons Fred Huntington of Chelmsford, Richard Kantelis of Taunton, and a daughter Donna Lee Kinney of Westford, 13 Grandchildren and 10 Great Grandchildren. She was also the mother of the late George Kantelis and the sister of the late Julia Furtado and the late Christine McDonough. Visiting Hours will be held at the Badger Funeral Home, 347 King St., Littleton, on Wednesday March 23, 2011 from 8:30-9:45 a.m., followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Anne's Church, 75 King St, Littleton, at 10 a.m., Burial at Westlawn Cemetery Littleton. Please see www.badgerfuneral.com.

Published in The Littleton Independent from March 21 to March 28, 2011