

Alice Hurley...1941-1994

Alice (Shelvey) Hurley, 53, of George Street, died Sunday, Dec. 4, 1994 at Emerson Hospital in Concord after a brief illness.

She was born in Cambridge, March 24, 1941, the daughter of the late Lawrence and Alice (Collins) Shelvey. Mrs. Hurley was a graduate of Cambridge High and Latin, Class of 1959.

She had been a resident of Littleton since 1971 and was a parishioner of St. Anne's Church. Prior to her illness she had been employed by Tobin Food Services. She had also been employed by the Littleton public schools food services department at the Shaker Lane Elementary School.

Mrs. Hurley is survived by two sons, Thomas J. Hurley of Denver, Colo., and Robert E. Hurley of Waltham; two daughters, Diane M. Hurley of Washington, D.C., and Cheryl A. Hurley of Littleton; two brothers, Lawrence A. Shelvey of Lowell and Thomas A. Shelvey of Westford; and one sister, Virginia Rider of Littleton. She is also survived by her former husband, Thomas J. Hurley, of Roswell, Ga.

The funeral was held Wednesday, Dec. 7 from the Badger Funeral Home in Littleton and was followed by a mass of Christian burial at St. Anne's Church, Littleton. For those who wish, donations may be made to the Hospice Program of Emerson Hospital, Concord, MA. 01742.

d: 12-4-94