John S. 'Jack' Hunt

... Littleton, worked as town lineman; 67

LITTLETON — John S. "Jack" Hunt, 67, died yesterday, Jan. 24, at his home after a long battle with cancer. He was the husband of Phyllis (Harrington) Hunt.

He was born in Littleton on Feb. 28, 1933, a son of the late Irving and Margaret (Knox) Hunt. A lifelong resident of Littleton, he was graduated from the Shattuck Street School in 1951.

Mr. Hunt served in the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict.

He worked as a lineman for the Littleton Highway Department and Light Department for 47 years, retiring three years ago.

He was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion, the Littleton Fire Department and St. Anne Church. He also enjoyed bingo and sports.

Besides his wife, survivors include three sons, John Hunt Jr. of Milford, N.H., Stephen J. Hunt of Nashua, N.H., and Robert P. Hunt of Lancaster; two daughters, Linda A. Bernier of New Boston, N.H. and Susan Wood of Ft. Knox, Ky.; three brothers, Edward F. and James H. Hunt, both of Littleton, and Thomas I. Hunt of Lowell; a sister, Margaret Woodin of Littleton; also 15 grandchildren.
