

ROLAND G. HOUGHTON

The funeral of Roland G. Houghton, a retired member of the firm of Conant and Houghton, of Littleton, who died in Sarasota Florida, February 16, was held yesterday afternoon from the Unitarian church, Littleton, at 2.30 o'clock, and was attended by many relatives and friends.

The Rev. John H. Wilson, a former pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by the pastor, the Rev. Grant F. Haskell. The organist was Mrs. Herman Johnson, the exceptionally large number of flowers necessitated a special car to convey them to the cemetery.

A delegation was present from the Tathatawan Lodge of Masons of Littleton of which Mr Houghton was a member and representing the Littleton fire department, where he was also a former member, were Flint Furbush, the chief; E. Foster Kimball, Albert Duffy, and Winthrop Hunt.

The bearers were Langdon Prouty, Austin L. Hartwell, James B. Sibley, Houghton B. Priest, George W. Tooker, Eugene J. Anctil and Paul D. Fletcher.

Interment took place in the Houghton family lot in the West-lawn cemetery, Littleton, where the committal service was read by the Rev. Mr. Wilson.

Traffic at the church and cemetery was handled by Chief Francis Hannagan of the Littleton police department.

The arrangements were in charge of Paul D. Fletcher, under the direction of Funeral Directors David L. Greig and Son, Inc.
