

Daisy Robbins Howard

Mrs. Daisy (Robbins) Howard, 360 King Street, Littleton, died on Monday, February 7, 1966, at the Ayer Unit of the Nashoba Community Hospital. She was the widow of George E. Howard, who died late in 1965. Born in Littleton on December 4, 1881, the daughter of the late Albert and Mary (Whitcomb) Robbins, she had lived in Littleton all her life.

She was a membr of th First Church Unitarian and the Day Alliance and is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Mary F. Ball of Littleton, her son, Philip R. of Littleton, a brother, Charles S. Robbins of Melrose and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from the Badger Funeral Home, King Street, Littleton on Thursday, Feb. 10th at 2:30 p.m. The Rev. Robert Hadley, of the First Church Unitarian performed the service, Interment was in Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton.